THE SOUTH-CAROLINA AND COUNTRY GAZETTE; JOURNAL.

Containing the freſheſt Advices, both Foreign and Domeſtic.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 12, 1773.

LONDON, NOVEMBER 2.

NEXT Thurſday the two Sheriffs, with the City Remembrancer, are to go to invite the Lord Chancellor, the Great Officers of State, the Foreign Ambaſſadors, Nobility, Judges, Serjeants, &c. to the Lord Mayor's Feaſt, which is to be at Guild-hall on Monday next.

Extract of a letter from Hamburgh, October 20.

"By the bleſſing of God, this year's crop of corn excels many preceding years, ſo that we ſhall be able to ſupply other countries with our own products; beſides we have ſuch an immenſe quantity of proviſions in our ſtores, that hardly a ware-houſe is to be lett either in the city or in Altona, they being all filled up with this article of merchandize. Thirty more ſhips laden with wheat and rye are expected every day in our harbour from Archangel. The price of grain lately fell in ſuch a manner, that one of the greateſt corn merchants loſt his whole fortune, and was obliged to break for 150,000 markbanes, i. e. 10,000l. and more of the corn merchants are expected to follow him, as they are obliged to ſell at above twenty per cent. under prime coſt, according to the preſent market price."

NOVEMBER 3. The appointment of ſupervifors to carry into execution the preſent commiſſion preparing to be ſent to India, has been looked upon as ſuch a douceur by many of the Directors, that there is far from being the greateſt harmony behind the bar. The diſappointed candidates, as well as their friends, loudly complain of an over-ruling influence; that ſeveral letters, as well as verbal propoſals, from men of abilities to ſerve them in the capacity of ſupervifors, have been ſuppreſſed, together with part of the Minutes of the late Committee.

One of the cauſes of the grievances in Bengal, &c. has been univerſally attributed to the miſmanagement of direction at home. How prepoſterous then is it to ſend out as ſupervifors, to correct abuſes, a part of that body who has created them! It is ſaid General Monckton is ſo ſenſible of this, that if the proprietors ſhould collectively accept of the directors preſent nomination, he will refuſe his intended appointment.

We hear from Poſnania in Poland, that the cathedral church of that city, with all its rich ornaments, were burnt to cinders on the 29th of September, by an accidental fire.

Letters from the Hague, dated the 28th ult. mention, that Prince Gallitzin, the Ruſſian miniſter at that place, had received no advice of the diſgrace of Count Gregory Orlow, ſo that that report merits confirmation.

We hear from Quebec, in Canada, that an order hath been lately publiſhed by the Governor, prohibiting the carrying on any kind of commerce with the Indians, ſuch an intercourſe having repeatedly cauſed murder, rapine, and robbery, by which means the petty ſettlements have been deſtroyed, and the traders either retained or cut off.

We learn that his Swediſh Majeſty has iſſued an order in Swediſh Lapland for fixing the prices of corn, fiſh, meat, &c. to a certain ſtandard for the enſuing winter.

It is thought that the Lord Mayor owed the facility of his retreat from the Hall on Thurſday laſt, to the caution which Mr. Allen gave the Livery againſt any diſorder, in the concluſion of his ſpeech. Several are of opinion, that had it not been for that caution, he would ſeverely have experienced the reſentment of an injured multitude.

NOVEMBER 5. The Lord Mayor elect has ordered the City State-Coach to be finiſhed in the moſt elegant manner by next Monday; it is to be lined with blue velvet, the coach-box the ſame, which is to be embroidered with gold, in a very curious manner.

On Tueſday a grant paſſed the Great Seal to the Right Hon. George Viſcount Townſhend, of the office of Maſter General of his Majeſty's Ordnance, &c. to hold the ſame from the day on which he ſhall be ſucceeded in his government of Ireland, by the arrival of the Earl of Harcourt in that kingdom.

On Tueſday the Lord Mayor elect ſent for the City Marſhals, and acquainted them that he ſhould expect a ſtrict and regular attention to the duties of their office with reſpect to the markets of this City, the abuſes whereof have been very prejudicial of late years to the community; and alſo ordered them to cloath their men in the colour of his Lordſhip's Livery, according to their original inſtructions from the Court of Common Council; and that thoſe men do diligently patrole the ſtreets of this city, and apprehend all vagrants, beggars, and all other diſorderly perſons who prey on the humane, benevolent, and induſtrious inhabitants, and that each of them ſhould be paſſed to their reſpective pariſhes. His Lordſhip likewiſe gave very particular inſtructions to the meal-weighers, and declared, if regular returns were not made to him of the various prices of corn, he would provide proper perſons, at his own coſt and charges, to inſpect the ſame, and puniſh every defaulter, as far as the law empowers him.

His Lordſhip alſo ordered William Dawſon, Eſq; carefully to inſpect the ſeveral veſſels employed in the fiſhery, and to prevent their lying up at Graveſend, in their paſſage to London, within a limited time, which is the practice at preſent, and which enables the ſellers to feed the market as they ſee fit, and, conſequently, to enhance the price at pleaſure; he is likewiſe to watch carefully the Weſt-country barges from Staines to London, in order to prevent combinations, by ſtopping in their way, which hath too frequently been practiſed; and his Lordſhip alſo further declared, he would be ever ready to hear, and endeavour to redreſs every grievance and complaints under which his fellow-citizens ſuffered, to the utmoſt extent of his power, during his Mayoralty.

Nothing can be more erroneouſly founded than the ſuppoſition of an union taking place in Ireland under Lord Harcourt; for, conſidering the ſituation of that country, it never can be an object with adminiſtration here, all the ſea-port towns in that kingdom, in conſequence of a free trade, being capable of rivalling thoſe of England, both in regard to exports and imports. Beſides all this, corrupt as our Engliſh Parliaments are, the Miniſter finds it leſs difficult at preſent, from the neceſſities and diſſipations of the Iriſh Members, to influence their determinations, than he would (incorporated as they then would be) our Houſes of Parliament.

We hear that a Great Perſonage intends to renew the theatrical amuſements at Court, as has been practiſed in former reigns, to prevent a repetition of the treatment he received the laſt night of his going to Drury-Lane Theatre. This hint, it is ſaid, has been given him by the managers, who, notwithſtanding all their care, cannot take upon themſelves to be anſwerable in future for the unruly part of the audience.

By letters from Toulon we learn, that a man of war of 50 guns, and 550 men, belonging to that place, was loſt on the coaſt of Britanny, on the 4th of laſt month, and but 304 of the people were ſaved.

Extract of a letter from the Hague, October 20.

"The King of Poland has written a letter with his own hand to the States General, complaining heavily of the injuſtice lately practiſed by the diviſion of Poland, as diametrically contrary to all the rights of nations; and concludes with ſoliciting the aſſiſtance of their High Mightineſſes to recover his territories. It is ſuppoſed that the States General will not interfere in this affair. The Poliſh Prince Czartoriſki is gone from hence with all his family, by way of Calais, to England.

"Yeſterday Mr. Keith ſet out from hence for Vienna."

Extract of a letter from Zell, October 20.

"This afternoon Queen Caroline Matilda arrived here from the Caſtle at Goerde, eſcorted by a ſquadron of Springel's regiment of dragoons, &c. The citizens were regularly drawn up, with their colours ranged; and the people teſtified their joy with inceſſant acclamations, at ſeeing her. Upon her arrival at our Caſtle, her Majeſty found there a company of the regiment of Prince Erneſt of Mecklenburgh, with their colours flying, and was received by the Princes Charles and George of Mecklenburgh. We have this moment the pleaſure to ſee her Majeſty walking through the city, which is moſt magnificently illuminated.

"By order of the King of Great-Britain, our Sovereign, the Royal Etiquette will be obſerved in all points towards the Queen his ſiſter. All the Royal Houſhold are already arrived from Hanover."

NOVEMBER 6. It is now determined that no ſupervifon ſhall be ſent to India till after the parliament has conſidered the propriety of the meaſure, and given it a formal ſanction of judicial authority

It is ſaid, that ſoon after the Lord Mayor elect is ſworn into his office, he will be applied to for a common-hall.

Sir James Eyre has appointed Mr Furnivall, of Boſwell-court, his examiner in the court of exchequer.

His Excellency Sir Jeffery Amherſt, Governor of Guernſey, has lately preſented to the rectory of St. Peter's, the Rev. Mr. Iſaac Vallat, many years miniſter of Alderney.

NOVEMBER 7. The following account is given of the ſeizure of the papers and perſon of the Prince de Conti, which has made a great noiſe at Paris. The Prince de Conti having been ſuſpected by the court, to have favoured ſeveral ſeditious papers lately publiſhed againſt the miniſtry, and to have cauſed them to be privately printed at a preſs he had erected in the verge of the temple, where he uſed his court at Paris; the Chancellor Maupeau obtained a lettre de cachet, which he cauſed to be iſſued October the 23d. In conſequence of this arret the palace of the Prince was environed at midnight by the mouſquetaires and other guards. They firſt ſecured the manuſcripts and printed papers; theſe were inſtantly depoſited in the hands of Monſ. de Sartine, the Lieutenant of the Police. The Abbe Quillet (the ſuppoſed author of the different publications) together with the printers, were then ſeized and conducted to the Baſtile. During the confuſion, one of the Prince's penſioners found means to eſcape, and made the beſt of his way to L'iſle d'Adam, a country ſeat belonging to the Prince de Conti, (where he then was) and acquainted him with what was tranſacting at his palace. The Prince, greatly aſtoniſhed at the intelligence, immediately ſet off for Paris; but his highneſs found his perſon no more ſacred than his houſe, his papers, or his ſecrets. The miniſter, Maupeau, ſecured the Prince alſo; and the great and noble aſſerter and protector of the liberties of his country has been immured like a common felon. What will be the conſequence of this atrocious ſtretch of power in the Chancellor, time only can diſcloſe; but the populace is ſo exaſperated, that ſome dreadful effects are to be expected. The other Princes of the blood were ſo alarmed at this daring attack of the miniſter, on ſo reſpectable a part of their body, that they went from their palaces in Paris to the country with the utmoſt precipitation, in the opinion of many, in a manner very unworthy their high births and ſtations.

Letters from Paris mention, that the French African Company have received orders to make up their accounts for the inſpection of the miniſtry; that ſociety being to be diſſolved, and the trade carried on by government only.

To-morrow the Lord Mayor, aldermen, ſheriffs, &c. will meet at Guildhall, when the Lord Mayor elect will be ſworn in; afterwards the two Lord Mayors will return in the ſtate-coach to the manſion-houſe, where the aldermen, ſheriffs, &c. will be entertained at the joint expence of the two Lord Mayors.

The conſtables of the ſeveral wards of the city are ſummoned to attend to-morrow at Guildhall to preſerve the peace, and to keep the paſſage clear to and from the huſtings. The city marſhals have particular orders to ſee that the ſeveral conſtables do their duty.

Yeſterday being the firſt day of Michael mas term, the lord chancellor went to Weſtminſter hall, attended by the judges, ſerjeants at law, King's council, &c. and, after ſaluting the ſeveral courts, his lordſhip proceeded to buſineſs in the court of chancery. The new chief baron, Sir Sidney Stafford Smythe, took the oaths to qualify himſelf for that office, and afterwards preſided in the court of exchequer. After the courts were ſeated, Sir James Eyre, the newly appointed baron, and George Hill, Eſq; were introduced at the bar of the court of chancery, when they informed the lord chancellor that they had each received his Majeſty's writ, commanding them to take on them the degree of ſerjeants at law, under the penalty of 1000l. and prayed that the writs might be recorded; this being done they took the uſual oaths of qualification, and were conducted to the court of common pleas, where they were called ſerjeants at law, according to uſual form: and yeſterday evening Sir James Eyre was ſworn into his office of baron, and George Hill, of King's ſerjeant, at the lord chancellor's houſe in Great Ruſſel-ſtreet, Bloomſbury.

Sir James Eyre gave the chancellor two rings to be preſented to their Majeſties as a token of regard.

Yeſterday at the cabinet council held at St. James's, Sir Jeffery Amherſt was ſworn in one of his Majeſty's moſt hon. privy council, and took his ſeat at the board.

An extraordinary divorce is like to take place not far from Groſvenor-ſquare. Two models of faſhion, who profeſſed the higheſt friendſhip for each other, and who were almoſt inſeparable (the one a widow, the other a wife) being one night at an aſſembly, the wife complained to her friend, That ſeared her huſband was inconſtant to her; the friend adviſed her not to fill her head with ſuch fancies. The wife went home, but her huſband not returning all night, ſhe aroſe early and drew to her friend to communicate her ſurpriſe; the milk woman being at the door, and the maid engaged in talk with her, ſhe walked in without ceremony, and up ſtairs ſhe went, where, to her great ſurprize, ſhe found her huſband in bed with her friend.

It has been aſſerted in the public papers, that the civil liſt is only two quarters in arrear. It is abſolutely falſe. The whole civil government, or, in the office ſtyle, the whole civil eſtabliſhment, is, bona fide, unpaid from Chriſtmas laſt to this hour. If any one aſks what is become of the money ſo largely and liberally granted by the public? the true anſwer is, it is ſquandered in penſions and bribes, to procure and retain a majority in the two houſes of parliament, to do the King's buſineſs, as it is called.

The public may depend on it, every thing relative to ſupervifion will be ſettled by parliament time enough for the ſupervifors to go out this ſeaſon, though ſome ſubſequent act may take place for the better regulation of the company's affairs in Bengal, otherwiſe ſo early a day as the 10th inſt. would not be agreed on by the proprietors to canvas the commiſſion, but it would lie over till Chriſtmas, the quarterly meeting.

You may aſſure the public from authority, ſays a correſpondent, that the regulations of the prices of proviſions, &c. will be the firſt buſineſs agitated next ſeſſion of parliament.

The following is the inſcription upon the monument of Mrs. Pritchard, which was put up laſt Wedneſday, at the eaſt end of Weſtminſter abbey next to Shakeſpeare, and oppoſite to Handel's monument:

"This tablet is here placed by a voluntary ſubſcription of thoſe who admired and eſteemed her. She retired from the ſtage, of which ſhe had long been the ornament, in the month of April 1768, and died at Bath in the month of Auguſt following, in the 57th year of her age.

"Her comic vein had ev'ry charm to pleaſe,
'Twas nature's dictates breath'd with nature's eaſe.
E'en when her powers ſuſtain'd the tragic load,
Full, clear, and juſt, th' harmonious accents flow'd;
And the big paſſions of her feeling heart
Burſt freely forth, and ſham'd the mimic art.
Oft, on the ſcene, with colours not her own,
She painted vice, and taught us what to ſhun;
One virtuous track her real life purſu'd,
That nobler part was uniformly good.
Each duty there to ſuch perfection wrought,
That, if the precepts fail'd, the example taught.

W. WHITEHEAD, P. L."

ST. JAMES'S, October 23. The King has been pleaſed to appoint Sir Sidney Stafford Smythe, to be Lord Chief Baron of his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer, on the reſignation of the Lord Chief Baron Sir Thomas Parker.

The King has been pleaſed to confer the honour of knighthood on James Eyre, Eſq; Recorder of the City of London; and at the ſame time he had the honour of kiſſing his Majeſty's hand, on being appointed one of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer.

November 3. The King has been pleaſed to grant unto William Courtenay, of Hartley-Row, in the county of Hants, Eſq; and John Benſon, of Chriſt-Church, in the county of Oxford, Eſq; the office of making, writing, and engroſſing, all writs of ſubpœna iſſuing out of the High Court of Chancery, commonly called the ſubpœna office in Chancery.

DUBLIN-CASTLE, October 26. His excellency the Lord Lieutenant has appointed the Earl of Ely, governor of Fermanagh, in the room of the late Earl of Ely.

Lord Baron Erne is appointed governor of the county of Fermanagh, in the room of the late Lord Erne.

DUBLIN, October 29. A ſpecial commiſſion for trying the Hearts of Steel, was opened this day at his Majeſty's court of King's Bench before Lord Annaly, L. C. Baron Foſter, and Mr. Juſtice Robinſon, when two of theſe priſoners were tried for the murder of the Rev. Mr. Morrell, and alſo for a treſpaſs, by deſtroying the houſhold furniture of Richard Johnſon, of Guilford. They were both acquitted of the murder, and one of them found guilty of the treſpaſs.

CLONMELL, October 26. The White Boys have again commenced their depredations; they now make no ſcruple of even coming to the fields adjoining to this town, from whence they have taken at different nights the gentlemens horſes which were at graſs. A number of theſe miſcreants, armed with ſwords, went laſt week to the houſe of Mr. Engliſh, of Clonacody, near Feathard, on whom they impoſed ſeveral oaths; and when going off, took with them a gun, which had been lent him by a neighbouring gentleman for his protection. The guns and piſtols taken by them from Mr. Brannagan, have never ſince been returned. Their preſent uniforms are white handkerchiefs tied round their hats. They generally muſter from three to five hundred each night.

Conſtantinople, September 17. We had another dreadful fire here, in the night of the 5th inſt. which burnt down 200 houſes. As combuſtible matter was found in ſeveral different parts of the town, it is not doubted but ſome evil deſigning perſons occaſioned this fire, with an intent to deſtroy the whole city. All the Turks who do not belong to this capital are ſtrictly ſent to the army or to the places they belong to. All perſons who were out of work are employed on the public buildings, and in ſhort every method is taking as if a revolution was apprehended.

A body of 1000 men having reſolved to leave the Viſir's army, forced the line formed to hinder deſertion, which augments daily; it is ſaid the Pacha who commanded the line loſt his life. Four hundred of theſe deſerters came within a league of this capital, to go to Aſia, but they were refuſed a paſſage over the canal, and were ordered immediately to go back to the army; but not conſenting to that, a detachment was ſent out againſt them, when ſeveral of the mutineers were killed, and others taken and carried to priſon; the reſt diſperſed into the countries and on the high-ways, where they commit all ſorts of diſorders.

Vienna, October 16. It is aſſerted that the court of Berlin, in conſequence of the repreſentations that have been made reſpecting the new duties that have been impoſed upon all ſhips that go in and out of the port of Dantzick, has ſent out a queſtion, which, it is hoped, will be approved of by all the nations intereſted in the commerce of that city.

Berlin, October 22. The King has publiſhed an edict, by which the trade of Sea ſalt is granted to a company of merchants excluſively; and the ſame edict prohibits the lending to foreign countries any of the products of the diſtricts of Emeland,

ST. GEORGE, (in Grenada) OCTOBER 24.

A few days ago died here, James Fortion, Esq; in the 127th year of his age. He was born at Bourdeaux in 1645, arrived in the West-Indies in 1694, married at St. Chriſtophers, and removed from thence to Martinico, where he remained 30 years, and has reſided 48 years in this iſland. He retained his eye-ſight to his 119th year, and enjoyed good health and a chearful diſpoſition 'till within a few days of his death. He was undoubtedly the eldeſt man that ever died in the Weſt-Indies; and, had he reſided in a climate more favourable to longevity, he might, in all probability, have attained the age of the famous Jenkins or Par, the former of whom lived 169 years, and the latter above a century and an half.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint the honourable Hugh Dalrymple, lately Solicitor-General, to be Attorney-General, in the room of Thomas Bridgwater, Eſq; who has reſigned, and Thomas Baker, Eſq; to be Solicitor-General for this government.

Another detachment from the regiment in garriſon here, conſiſting of 40 men, under the command of Capt. Skinner and Lieutenant Darrah, is embarked for St. Vincent.

NOVEMBER 7. We are ſorry to learn, that Capt. Corner, of his Majeſty's ſhip the Creſcent, and Enſign Bruce, of the 70th regiment, lately died at St. Vincent, extremely regretted. Our operations againſt the Charaibs in that iſland have hitherto been much retarded by the cloſeneſs of the woods, which renders the penetrating into their country very hazardous and difficult. It is however conjectured that a deciſive puſh would ſoon be made, as the troops begin to be very ſickly.

NOVEMBER 20. We have received no news for a conſiderable time paſt relative to the operations of our troops in St. Vincent. It ſeems, however, to be certain, that a body of them landed at Grand Sable, while another paſſed the rivers Jambou, and that they have penetrated into the heart of the Charaibs country without oppoſition.

BASSETERRE, (St. Chriſtophers) NOVEMBER 4.

On Saturday laſt the 31ſt ult. arrived here the ſchooner Half Moon Planter, Captain Martin, from Boſton, who informs us, that on the Tueſday before in lat. 20, he ſaw a Guinea brig, and not a white perſon on board, that when the negroes ſaw the white people on board the ſchooner, ſeveral of them came from below armed, on which the ſchooner bore away from her. The ſloop Molly, James Yard, maſter, ſailed the ſame day, about ſeven o'clock in the evening, in purſuit of her, with a ſufficiency of hands, &c.

BOSTON, NOVEMBER 30.

We hear from Roxbury, that on Monday the 16th day of November inſtant, the freeholders and other inhabitants of that town, were legally aſſembled, in order to take into conſideration, and adopt ſuch meaſures, as might be thought expedient, reſpecting the late alarming report, (added to the other grievances under which this people have for ſeveral years groaned) viz. that ſtipends are aſſixed by order of the crown, to the offices of the Judges of the Superior Court of Judicature of this province. When after mature deliberation thereon, the town appointed a Committee, conſiſting of five Gentlemen, to prepare and report inſtructions for their repreſentatives in General Aſſembly, reſpecting this momentous affair. The meeting was then adjourned to Monday the 23d inſt. in order to receive the report of their Committee, and to do what might appear ſtill further expedient to be done, on ſo alarming an occaſion.

At the adjournment of the above meeting on Monday laſt, the Committee having reported a draft of Inſtructions to their repreſentatives, the ſame was ſeveral times read, after debate thereon, was voted by the town; which, for want of room, we are obliged to omit.---

The Moderator then informed the town, that he had in his hand, written copies, of a letter of correſpondence, a ſtate of rights, and, an enumeration of the violations of rights, (with which he had been favoured by ſome of the Gentlemen of the Committee of correſpondence of the town of Boſton) which were voted by the town of Boſton at their laſt meeting; and after reading the ſame, the town, by a very great majority, voted, that a Committee, to conſiſt of nine, ſhould be choſen to take the ſame into conſideration, and report to the town, at their adjournment; a Committee was accordingly choſen; after which the meeting was adjourned to Monday the 14th of December next, then to meet, to receive the report of their ſaid Committee, and to do what may then be thought further neceſſary, on matters ſo intereſting and alarming.

In Capt. Jenkins, from London, a perſon came paſſenger who carried on the Button-making buſineſs, and has brought over the materials for making all ſorts of gilt buttons.---A manufacture not followed by any in America.

Thurſday the 16th of December next, is the day appointed for the trial of Anſell Nickerſon; he being the ſuppoſed murderer of three men and a boy lately ſaid to have been murdered by the crew of a pirate.

NEWPORT, (Rhode-Iſland) NOVEMBER 30.

On the 18th inſtant, departed this life, at South-Kingſton, John Watſon, Eſq; in the 97th year of his age. He was the firſt child born in Narraganſet, after the Indian war: He was bleſſed with more than a common ſhare of good ſenſe, and was early employed in many important affairs; was ſeveral years a member of the general aſſembly, and ſuſtained other offices of truſt and importance; all which he executed with integrity, and to general ſatisfaction: He enjoyed an uncommon ſhare of health, having never been confined to his bed till a few days before his death. He retained his memory and rational faculties to the laſt, had 8 children, 57 grand children, 95 great grand children, and 3 great great grand children, in all 163; of whom 138 are now living, and a great part of them followed his corpſe to the grave. He was a loving huſband, a tender father, a juſt magiſtrate, a good neighbour, a mild maſter, and an honeſt man.

NEW-YORK, DECEMBER 7.

Capt. Prince, mentioned in our laſt, in his way from Cayanne, touched at Barbadoes, and left that Iſland the 27th of October, and informs, that the ſlaves in a French brig belonging to Martinico, from Africa, had killed the crew on the paſſage, took poſſeſſion of the veſſel, were cruizing to windward of the Iſlands, and had fired upon ſeveral ſhips, &c. that had arrived in the Weſt Indies, and that two ſloops were gone in ſearch of her; that a ſhip belonging to Liverpool, with 350 ſlaves on board, was lately brought into Barbados, by another Guineaman, after a warm engagement of four hours, the ſlaves having killed all the whites on board but one little boy.

On Friday laſt the Governor's Guards, Grenadiers, Light-Infantry, Rangers, &c. (being the Independent Companies of this city) were, for the firſt time, publickly reviewed.---His Excellency Governor Tryon, and the other ſuperior Officers, with a ſplendid aſſembly of the principal Ladies and Gentlemen, appeared in the field. The Officers of the ſeveral Companies, performed their parts, in their reſpective departments, with great ſkill and regularity; and the men went through the different exerciſes and manœuvres, with an order and dexterity, which did them much honour. In fine, the neatneſs of their uniforms, the readineſs and grace with which the various evolutions were performed, and the propriety obſervable on the whole, gave much ſatisfaction to the numerous ſpectators, and muſt be agreeable to every one who wiſhes to ſee a well diſciplined militia amongſt us. After the buſineſs of the day was concluded, a ſplendid entertainment was given to the Officers, by their worthy Commander the Governor.

DECEMBER 14. The following remarkable entry, lately made at the Cuſtom-houſe at Montreal in Canada, from one houſe there, of goods ſhipped on board a ſhip bound to London, may give us ſome idea of the importance of the fur trade from that country, viz. 16019 beaver ſkins, 6990 martens, 530 minks, 2182 otters, 385 fiſhers, 5916 raccoons, 420 foxes, 1701 bears, 2407 pounds of dreſſed deers leather, 11302 deer ſkins in the hair, 855 elks, 2512 muſquaſh, 215 wolf, 72 caſed cats, 1237 opened cats, 3 beaver eaters, 394 pounds of caſtorum, 11 and half tons of pot aſh.

The General Aſſembly of this Province, meets here on the 5th January, and circular letters are ſent, notifying the ſame, to the reſpective members.

PHILADELPHIA, DECEMBER 9.

On Thurſday the 26th ult. the ſloop Ruby and her cargo were condemned by our new Judge of our new Court of Admiralty, to the utter aſtoniſhment of all thoſe who attended the hearing of the cauſe, and indeed of every other perſon acquainted with the merits of it. This Judge has a ſalary of 600l. ſterling, payable out of the American revenue, by the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms, by whoſe orders all ſeizures are to be proſecuted before him only.

From New Orleans we learn, that the French inhabitants, being ſick of the oppreſſive yoke of the Spaniards, are removing as faſt as poſſible, ſo that there are at leaſt two-thirds of them departed from thence already.

WILLIAMSBURGH, (Virginia) NOVEMBER 26.

The ſchooner Hanſford, Captain Wilſon, arrived at Norfolk, from Antigua, on the 18th ult. in lat. 19, long. 60, W. fell in with a Guineaman, the crew of which had been murdered by the negroes. Captain Wilſon, in attempting to come near, was fired at with muſkets; and as he had neither boat nor arms, and had been diſmaſted ſome days before, was obliged to leave her. She appeared to be a New-York built brig, with yellow ſides, black bends, a white bootop, black ſtern, and red mouldings, a black ſtroke on her quarters and red mouldings, had a green ſtroke all round her below the top of the gunwale, a kind of a billet head, with an image on it painted green, and had a ſquare tuck, with a very large boat on deck.

WILMINGTON, (North-Carolina) DECEMBER 23.

We hear from Newbern, that his Excellency our Governor, has prorogued the Aſſembly of this province, to the 18th of January next.

Since our laſt John Burgwin, Eſq; returned here from a tour through the northern colonies.

James Porter, Eſq; Comptroller General of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms in America, arrived at Newbern laſt week, and is daily expected here.

Upwards of an hundred paſſengers came in Captain Chivers, from Londonderry; ſome of whom, we hear, are going to Charles-Town, and the others intend to ſettle in this province.

CHARLES-TOWN, JANUARY 12.

A GRANT of an immenſe Tract of Country, back of the Northern Colonies, which, we hear, will be eſtabliſhed into a Proprietary Government, hath been obtained from the King, by Thomas Walpole, Eſq; Dr. Benjamin Franklin, John Sargent, and Samuel Wharton.---General Lyman, in Behalf of himſelf and other Provincial Officers, who ſerved in the late War, hath likewiſe obtained a Grant of an extenſive Country, on the Miſſiſſippi River.---His Excellency Governor Wright has alſo obtained a Grant of a Tract of Land in the Province of Georgia, ſuppoſed to contain Three Millions of Acres.----And ſeveral other Grants have alſo been made, to other Perſons, of great Bodies of Land on this Continent, for the better ſettling and populating this extenſive Part of the Britiſh Dominions.

Tueſday laſt the Ship Carolina, John Beſnard, Maſter, arrived here from London, in whom came Paſſengers John Gibbes, Eſq; Mr. James Ladſon, and Mr. John Walter, of this Province; Zachariah Hood, Eſq; formerly a Stamp-Officer, alſo arrived in ſaid Ship, on his Way to Philadelphia, being appointed Comptroller of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms for that Port.

Wedneſday laſt the New Commons Houſe of Aſſembly of this Province, met at the State-Houſe in this Town, when the Honourable Rawlins Lowndes, was again unanimouſly choſen Speaker, and preſented to his Excellency the Governor, who was pleaſed to diſapprove of their Choice, and directed the Members to return, and make Choice of another; but the Houſe unanimouſly adhering to their Choice, his Excellency, on Saturday laſt, by a Meſſage, prorogued the General Aſſembly to Monday the 15th of February next.

Thurſday laſt the Brig Friendſhip, Joſeph Blewer, Maſter, arrived here from Philadelphia, in whom came Paſſengers David Deas, Eſq; Mr. Thomas Radcliffe, jun. Mrs. Shepheard, Wife of Mr. Charles Shepheard, Merchant, and Miſs Bilney, of this Town; Mr. John Dortius, and Mrs. Blewer, of Philadelphia.

On the 6th of November laſt, the Snow Fortune, Robert Richardſon, Maſter, laden with Rum, Sugar, Cotton, &c. bound from Jamaica for London, in Lat. 23, 43 North, ſprung a Leak, which they finding impoſſible to ſtop, they on the 18th, having four Feet Water in the Hold, attempted to reach the Florida Shore, in order to ſave their Lives; but in Lat. 28, unfortunately ſtruck upon a Breaker, where the Veſſel and Cargo are entirely loſt; the Crew, except a Man and a Boy, ſaved themſelves in their Boat; and the Mate of the Snow is arrived here from St. Auguſtine.

On the 9th of laſt Month, the General Aſſembly of Georgia met there, when they choſe Noble-Wimberly Jones, Eſq; for their Speaker, but he declining the Chair, the next Day they choſe William Young, Eſq; who being approved of by the Preſident, his Honour opened the Seſſion with a Speech to both Houſes.

On the 19th ult. the Brigantine Charming Polly, Capt. Torry, from London, with a valuable Cargo of Goods for Savannah, and Beaufort, was loſt near Sunbury, in Georgia.

Saturday laſt the Sloop Active, Francis Dickinſon, Maſter, arrived here from Jamaica, in whom came Paſſenger Captain John Wooſter, late Maſter of the Brig Friendſhip, who ſailed from this Port for Barbados on the 27th of Auguſt laſt, and informs us, That on the 19th of September following, they met with a violent Gale of Wind, at E. N. E. which ſhifted all round the Compaſs: At Three o'Clock, as they were ſcudding, the Fore-Sail blew to Pieces from the Yard; they then ſcudded under bare Poles, and the Sea making a continual Breach over them: The Gale increaſing at Three o'Clock A. M. of the next Day, the Fore-Maſt blew over the Larboard Bow, and which, by cutting away the Lanyards and Rigging, they got clear of, without damaging the Veſſel's Bottom; they then broach'd too, and for about Fifteen Minutes the Starboard Side lay under Water, which filled the Steerage; when ſhe righted, they ſounded the Pump, and found they had Four Feet Water in the Hold: The next Day the Gale increaſing, the Step of the Main-Maſt gave way, the Lumber in the Hold very luckily prevented its ripping up the Decks; at One o'Clock, P. M. it went overboard, which, by cutting away the Rigging that belonged to it, they very happily got clear of, but with the Loſs of all that belonged to it. On the 21ſt of September, the Gale abating, in about Sixteen Hours they pumped the Veſſel free; they were then left at the Mercy of the Sea, in Lat. 29, 40, and Long. 60 Weſt, without Maſts, Rigging, Sails, &c. and for Thirty-five Days they could only get 240 Miles, (though all poſſible Means were taken) having Calms, or light Airs from the Southward: They very fortunately met with the Brig Nancy, Edward Allen, Maſter, from Boſton, who very obligingly ſupplied them with every Thing neceſſary for the Support of their Lives; and verily believes they muſt have all periſhed had they not providentially met with the ſaid Brig; that not being able to get into Barbados, they were obliged to bear away, and after a Paſſage of Eighty-five Days, they arrived at Port Royal, in Jamaica.

Yeſterday landed here, from the Ship Magna Charta, Captain Richard Maitland, from London, who they left off our Bar, Mr. Charles Ogelvie, Mr. Andrew Robertſon, Mr. James Mc Call, Mr. Nathaniel Hall, Mr. Peter Lapole, Mr. Edward Rutledge, and Mr. Jacob Shubrick.

MARRIED.] Dr. Alexander Baron, to Miſs Betſey Cleiland, Daughter of Dr. John Cleiland.---Mr. Charles Harris, Jeweller, to Miſs Betſey Chriſtie.

DIED.] At Jamaica, of which Iſland he was Governor, his Excellency William Trelawney.-----In this Town, Mrs. Ann Courtonne, Wife of Mr. James Courtonne, Jeweller.------Mrs. Elizabeth Farquhar, Wife of Mr. Robert Farquhar.---Mr. John Warham, Son of Mr. Charles Warham.---Mrs. Ann Wylly, Wife of Capt. Alexander Wylly.

HENRY MOUZON, jun.

 The Author having met with Succeſs in the Undertaking, acquaints his Subſcribers, that he has conſiderably enlarged his Deſign, both as to the Extent and Execution of the Map, which is now ſent to England to be engraved by one of the beſt Artiſts there, and flatters himſelf, that the Correctneſs and Elegance of the Engraving, (which he will ſpare no Expence to have executed in the beſt Manner) will make Amends for a few Months unavoidable Delay in the Publication.

ALL Perſons in Charles-Town, who are indebted to me, (except thoſe who have made it a Rule to pay their Accounts regularly) have this public Notice given them, that they will be waited upon, by a Perſon appointed for that Purpoſe, in a ſhort Time, with their Accounts, when it is expected there will be no putting off, as I am abſolutely in Want of my Money;---and ſuch Accounts as are not paid by the firſt of February next, will be put into proper Hands, in Order to be recovered.---And all Perſons in the Country, who are indebted to me, have this laſt Notice given them, that I expect they will make Payment by the 20th of March next.

CHARLES CROUCH.

SOUTH-CAROLINA.

Charles-Town, December 24, 1772.

Purſuant to a Decree of the Hon. the Court of Chancery, will be ſold, for ready Money, at public Vendue, on Tueſday the 26th of January next, at 12 o'Clock at Noon, before the Maſter of ſaid Court, at his Houſe in Tradd-Street,

ALL that Piece or Parcel of LAND, ſituate, lying, and being near Hampſtead, in St. Philip's Pariſh, in the Province aforeſaid, containing four Acres and an Half and three Perches:—On the Front Part whereof is a very good Two Story Brick Houſe, with a Kitchen, and a large Stable; lately belonging to JOHN KELLY, deceaſed, and now in the Occupation of Dennis Egan. WILLIAM BURROWS, Maſter in Chancery.

ATKINS & WESTON,

Have juſt imported from GLASGOW,

A great Variety of GOODS,

Among which are the following, viz.

MEN and Womens SADDLES, Pigtail TOBACCO, Check Handkerchiefs, LAWNS and GAUZES, both plain and flowered, Mens knit ribbed Thread HOSE, turning STAYS, Ounce THREADS, &c. &c.

They have alſo juſt imported,

GOODS from BRISTOL,

Among which are,

Double Glouceſterſhire CHEESE, Eat-Coker SAIL-CLOTH, SPLIT PEASE, VINEGAR, IRON POTS, &c. &c.

They have lately imported from LONDON, two large Cargoes of Goods, of which the following are Part, viz.

A large Supply of SILKS, both plain and flowered, among which are, India Damaſks, Luteſtrings and Taffaties; a great Aſſortment of LINENS of all Sorts, Gold and Silver LACE of the moſt faſhionable Patterns; a great Variety of flowered, ſtriped, and plain MUSLINS, wirked and plain LAWNS.

Compleat ſuits of TOMBOUR, worked and feather ſtitched MUSLINS, Thread LACES and EDGINGS, among which is ſome fine BRUSSELS LACE, black ſilk and blond LACES, SILK TRIMMINGS; a large Supply of moſt faſhionable RIBBONS and VELVET COLLARS; a good Aſſortment of well-choſen BED FURNITURE, with Tammiegt, and a few Marſeilles BED QUILTS, which are truly elegant; a few Fine GRATES, Sets of Tea and Table CHINA, beſt QUEEN's WARE, Looking Glaſſes, ſilver, Green, and Ivory handled Knives and Forks, in Mahogany Caſes.

☞ Their late Importations have been very large, and their Aſſortments general, and as they buy their Goods on the beſt Terms, and deſign conſtantly to keep up a large Stock, ſo their Cuſtomers may depend on being as well ſupplied by them as they could be by any Houſe in this Province.

To be ſold at private SALE,

A LOT of Land, oppoſite Mr. Watſon's, Up-the-Path, containing ſeventy-five Feet, fronting the Road, and Two Hundred Feet deep. Any Perſon inclinable to purchaſe, may apply to ELIZABETH WOOD, in Elliott-Street. Likewiſe,

A TRACT of LAND, in GRANVILLE County, containing 250 Acres. Any Perſon inclinable to purchaſe, may learn the Particulars, by enquiring as above.

RICE PLANTATIONS,

For SALE by private Contract.

TWO adjoining each other, on Tulifiny Swamp, diſtinguiſhed in the Map of the Province, by the Names of Palmira, and Elliott Foreſt; they were originally run out in one Tract, but have been ſettled in two Plantations, one on the North, the other on the South Side of the Swamp, about a Mile diſtant from each other; they contain upwards of Five Hundred Acres each, and will be ſo divided that 350 Acres of good Rice Swamp will be for each Plantation. Palmira is pleaſant and healthy, being on a high Hill, which overlooks the Rice Land. The Foreſt is rather flat Oak and Hickory Land, where the Buildings are, and of the Rice Swamp not more than 30 Acres cleared, tho' there is a Branch of it almoſt ſurrounding the Buildings, which, with the 30 Acres of cleared Swamp, produced 180 Barrels of Rice four Years ago.—Palmira has 200 Acres of Swamp cleared, and has worked 40 Negroes for ſeveral Seaſons to Advantage. Vaſt Profit may be made by ſawing Lumber in the Foreſt, as it abounds with the beſt black Cypreſs, and the Diſtance from Cooſawhatchie Landing, which will admit the largeſt Coaſting Schoongers, exceeds not a Mile and a Half. Palmira is two Miles from Pocotaligo Landing, which is as good as the former, and has 150 Acres of uncleared Swamp, where much Cypreſs may alſo be ſawed for Market. The Soil of the Swamp is blue Clay, and the Trees in it are Cypreſs, Tupelo, Maple, and Aſh. Theſe Plantations have been under Leaſe for ſeveral Years; one of them is now in the Poſſeſſion of Robert Van Bebber, the other is juſt vacant, but if not ſold by the firſt of March next, will again be rented.

The Terms of Sale will be made as eaſy as poſſible to the Purchaſers. Apply in Charles-Town, to BARNARD ELLIOTT.

ALEXANDER GILLON, WILLIAM CRIPPS, JOHN PLATT CRIPPS, & FLORIAN CHARLES MEY, have commenced a Partnerſhip,

UNDER the FIRM of

ALEXANDER GILLON, & Co.

Who have to diſpoſe of, at their STORE in Broad ſtreet, near the Exchange, a great Variety of Dutch, German, and Engliſh GOODS, at Nine for One; and will be thankful to thoſe who will deal with them. January 1, 1773.

THE SUBSCRIBER

ACQUAINTS his Friends, that he has furniſhed himſelf with a convenient Houſe, where he will take in Negroes in the Cure of the Yaws, Leproſy, and Venerial Diſorders, of all Kinds: Any Perſon who is pleaſed to favour him with their Buſineſs, may depend that their Intereſts ſhall be adhered to, with that Strictneſs, and Aſſiduity, as he flatters himſelf will give Satisfaction. EDWARD BROWN.

N. B. He has a Preparation which is an infalliable Cure for all Scorbutic Diſorders, but moſt particularly thoſe of the Teeth and Gums. Apply to him at his Shop in King-Street, oppoſite Dr. MOULTRIE's.

THE SUBSCRIBER being deſirous of removing his Negroes to his Southern Lands, will diſpoſe of at private Sale, the valuable TRACT of LAND on which he reſides, in St. Bartholomew's Pariſh, containing 1400 Acres, 500 Acres of which is Swamp, hazardous neither in wet or dry Seaſons; it is divided into two Plantations, which have every neceſſary Conveniency. Likewiſe two Tracts of LAND, near the Horſe-Shoe Savannah, one of which contains 500 Acres, and the other 327. If they are not ſold before the Firſt Day of February, they will not be diſpoſed of this Year. ISAAC HAYNE.

ADDITION to the South-Carolina Gazette, and Country Journal.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 15, 1773. [Printed by CHARLES CROUCH, in Elliott-ſtreet.]

LONDON, NOVEMBER 9.

A LETTER from Naples of the 30th of September, ſays, that the Government has juſt cauſed ſome Ruſſian Officers to be arreſted who were taking a plan of the caſtle and fortifications.

Extract of a letter from Vienna, October 21.

"The Poliſh envoy at this Court has preſented to the Emperor, in the name of the King his Maſter, and of the Republic, a manifeſto, wherein his Majeſty, in concert with the Republic, proteſts againſt the partition which has juſt been made of the kingdom, and requeſts the execution of the treaty of Oliva, and the ſuccour of the powers who guarantied that treaty. It is ſaid that the King has ſent a like manifeſto to all the courts of Europe, and in particular to thoſe of France and Spain, imploring their aſſiſtance.

"When the laſt accounts came from Conſtantinople, the plague raged there, and particularly in the ſuburbs of Pera, with as much violence as in the middle of ſummer."

Yeſterday, about two o'clock, the Right Hon. James Townſend, Eſq; Lord Mayor elect, was ſworn in as Lord Mayor at Guildhall for the year enſuing: After that ceremony, and the Sword Bearer, Mace Bearer, &c. had ſurrendered the ſame to the preſent Mayor, who delivered them to the Lord Mayor elect; he then returned them to the reſpective Gentlemen: The old Lord Mayor then came forward and addreſſed himſelf to the Livery to the following effect---"That on the expiration of his high and important office, he was happy in the conſcious reflection, that he had employed his whole time with the greateſt integrity in promoting the intereſt of his Fellow Citizens, and ſtudying the happineſs of this great Metropolis; and his Lordſhip concluded by obſerving, how worthy a Gentleman was to ſucceed him."

Excluſive of the Lord Mayor and Lord Mayor elect, there were only the ſix following Aldermen, who attended yeſterday at Guildhall, viz. Croſby, Oliver, Bull, Roſſeter, Lewes, and Plomer.

NOVEMBER 10. Yeſterday ſome diſpatches arrived at the Admiralty Office from Admiral Rodney, Commander in Chief on the Jamaica ſtation, the contents of which are to be referred to the Lords of trade.

It is ſaid that ſome important matters will be taken into conſideration at the next Board of Treaſury, and that ſome able Financiers have been deſired to attend.

Extract of a letter from Portſmouth, November 7.

"A frigate is this moment arrived expreſs from the Mediterranean, with an account that one of his Majeſty's ſhips attempting to go into the harbour of Carthagena was fired upon from the fort; the Captain of the Engliſh ſhip reſolutely returned the fire, but was ſoon overpowered and obliged to ſtrike. I hope this affair will be amicably ſettled."

Orders are given from the War Office for all Officers of horſe or foot belonging to regiments on duty in Hanover, to join them without fail by Chriſtmas-day.

Yeſterday morning the new and old Lord Mayors went from Guildhall (the Mercers and Merchant Taylors Companies walking before them with muſic playing and colours flying) accompanied by Aldermen Stephenſon, Croſby, Sawbridge, Bull, and Plomer, the two Sheriffs, Common Serjeant, City Counſel, and other City Officers, to Queenhithe, and embarking there on board the city barge, proceeded to Weſtminſter Hall, where the Lord Mayor was ſworn in with the uſual ceremonies; they then returned to Black-friars bridge about two o'clock, and reached Guildhall at three, amidſt a great concourſe of people.

Another account ſays, The Lord Mayor was attended yeſterday by the following Gentlemen, who were received as is expreſſed againſt their reſpective names:

1. Late Lord Mayor---hooting.
2. Stephenſon and Sawbridge---dead ſilence.
3. Croſby---huzzas.
4. Bull---ditto
5. Plomer---ſilence: Not known to the populace.
6. Oliver---hooting and the cry of "No turn-coats."

And, 7thly, came Mr. Sheriff Lewes laughing heartily. He was received with the loudeſt acclamations, and returned the compliments by repeated bows.

Mr. Wilkes did not attend, and Sir William Stephenſon only rode to the water-ſide, and returned.

During the time the Lord Mayor, &c. were gone to Weſtminſter, the ſtate coach came back to the Manſion Houſe and carried the Lady Mayoreſs to Guildhall, as did the chariot of Mr. Sheriff Lewes to convey his Lady to the Hall, who was with the Lady Mayoreſs at the Manſion Houſe.

The mob ſeized the coach of the new Lord Mayor in King-ſtreet, and attempted to draw it back, crying out, that Wilkes ſhould go firſt---but no Wilkes appearing, they permitted it to proceed.

The Mercers Company hired the Brewers barge for yeſterday's proceſſion.

Yeſterday Earl Temple came to town from Stowe for the winter.

Extract of a letter from Berlin, October 28.

"The King our Sovereign ſeems determined to maintain his newly acquired dominions againſt any power that ſhall endeavour to oppoſe him. Every city and town of any conſequence; both in Pomerania and Poliſh Pruſſia, is now fortifying with the utmoſt diſpatch, and ſtrong garriſons are to be put into them. All the ſea-ports are to be particularly well fortified, and ſhips of war are to be built at Dantzick and the Viſtula; in ſhort, he will become in a few years (if he lives) the moſt powerful potentate in the North."

The general meeting of the bank of Douglas, Heron, and Co. was held at Dumfries on Monday the 2d inſtant, when the proceedings were unanimous: Many alterations were made, and every thing was ſettled, to the intire ſatisfaction of a very numerous and reſpectable body of the partners then preſent.

By advices from Seville we learn, that the Spaniards are now uſing every effort to put their naval force on a reſpectable footing.

A letter from Paris of the firſt inſtant ſays, "All the Princes of the Blood have received orders to attend the Parliament on the 12th. The immoderate dearneſs of proviſions of all kinds, and the tyranny of the leading men, are likely to produce a ſcene of general confuſion. The guards in this city are all doubled. Not one of the Miniſters but has a number in his houſe for his ſafety."

It is ſaid that memorials are conſtantly arriving at this Court in favour of the King of Poland and his unfortunate people.

It is ſaid that orders have been given for 12 ſhips of the line to be got ready to ſail from Spithead at an hour's warning.

NOVEMBER 11. A letter has been received by the Earl of Rochford, from his Majeſty's Ambaſſador at Conſtantinople, giving an account that a violent plague and ſcarlet fever rages there; in conſequence of which, ſtrict orders have been ſent to the ſeveral ſeaports in this kingdom, to take the neceſſary preçautions in caſe any ſhips arrive from Turkey.

Extract of a letter from the Hague, November 3.

"As the change of government in Poliſh Pruſſia muſt prove a great check to the corn trade, which uſed to be carried on by the Dutch to that country, and particularly to Dantzick, where the new duties laid by the King of Pruſſia amount to a moſt a prohibition; it is ſaid that the States General are endeavouring to make good this deficiency, by adopting a ſcheme that has been propoſed to them of raiſing all ſorts of corn, but wheat in particular, at the Cape of Good Hope; the ſoil of which country is peculiarly fertile, and promiſes a crop equal to what comes from Zealand, which has always been held in great eſtimation. A great number of Farmers well verſed in agriculture, it is ſaid, are to be encouraged to go and ſettle in that country; by which means, it is not to be doubted, that in three years time we ſhall have a plentiful ſupply of corn from thence.

Extract of a letter from Lewis Iſland, in Scotland, dated October 26.

"The peſtilential fever that has raged in this part of the country for ſome time paſt, is greatly abated. We were afflicted with this diſorder much about the ſame time laſt year, but it did not prove ſo fatal. It is thought to be owing to the vaſt quantities of fiſh and herring that are daily eaten by the inhabitants, the greateſt part of whom live entirely upon herrings and potatoes during the fiſh months, owing to the ſcarcity of corn and want of bread."

The iſlands of Lewis are the furthermoſt of the weſtern iſlands to the north-weſt, and alſo the extremity of Europe on that ſide; they are about 100 miles in length, including Harries, about 70 miles from the main land of Strathnaver and Roſſſhire; the iſlands of Uiſt and Sky are the next contigious to them.

The following is a paragraph of a letter, dated from Stornoway, October 12, to a Gentleman in Greenock: "This part of the country is in great diſtreſs with a purple fever, which carries off a great many people."

NOVEMBER 12. A letter from Hamburgh, dated November 3, ſays, "The pretence and claims of Count Schomberg to be the owner of our city begins to become very ſerious. Our Senate were aſſembled the day before yeſterday, at four o'clock in the afternoon, on this occaſion, as ancient claim is very dangerous in our time."

Extract of a letter from Copenhagen, October 20.

"This day began the public ſale of the houſhold of the late Counts Struenſee and Brandt, by auction; every article ſold for ten times more than it was worth, as every one is curious to have ſome reliques in commemoration of theſe two unhappy martyrs. By this ſale the Miniſtry may plainly ſee what the nation thinks about it, and how many private friends the Counts ſtill have, whoſe only wiſhes are revenge and reſentment."

Advices from Spain mention, that a few weeks ago, by order of the King, the Heads of ſeveral Religious Houſes were apprehended, and their papers ſeized; but upon what pretence had not tranſpired when theſe letters came away.

Advices are received from Paris, that ſome of the nobleſt families in that city have ſecretly departed from thence, and are ſuppoſed to be gone for Holland.

Yeſterday his Excellency the Daniſh Ambaſſador took leave of their Majeſties at St. James's, and will in a few days embark for the Continent.

Tueſday an expreſs was ſent off from St. James's to Warſaw.

Yeſterday Prince Poniſſowſki, brother to the King of Poland, who lately arrived in town from that kingdom, was introduced to his Majeſty at St. James's, and graciouſly received.

A houſe is taken in Soho-ſquare, ſaid to be for a diſtinguiſhed perſonage expected from Poland.

We hear that the epidemical diſtemper in the north is thought ſo ſeriouſly of, that the troops in Scotland are ordered to form a chain to prevent farther infection.

The Eaſt-India Company propoſe to ſend out, in the fleet now preparing to ſail, 10,000 ſtand of arms, and ſeveral field pieces.

Extract of a letter from Warſaw, October 27.

"The affairs of this unhappy kingdom are ſtill in a moſt dubious ſtate. The fate of the King cannot be even gueſſed at with any degree of certainty; ſome people are afraid for his perſonal ſafety, whilſt others imagine that he will be degraded from his rank, and be allowed his private eſtates, with an additional ſtipend from the three powers who have divided his dominions. This ſeems to be the moſt reaſonable opinion, as thoſe powers can never act ſo impoliticaly as to aim at his life, for however diſpicable his ſituation may appear in the eyes of the different courts of Europe, his misfortunes have endeared him to all his ſubjects, even the Confederates, who to a man would revenge his cauſe, and oppoſe the diſmemberment of their country. At preſent nothing but anarchy and confuſion reigns here. The inſolence of the Auſtrian and Ruſſian ſoldiers is daily complained of, but no redreſs can be found; they treat the miſerable people as captives, and the city as a conquered one. The Pruſſians, through the attention of their Officers, behave with more humanity, and are much better beloved by the inhabitants than the ſoldiers of the two other powers."

They write from Venice, that the Republic are now fitting out a great number of ſhips, gallies, &c. and putting the land-forces on a reſpectable footing, on what account is kept a profound ſecret.

Some letters from the Hague mention that the Pruſſian Ambaſſador has juſt delivered to their High Mightineſſes his Maſter's anſwer to the memorial of the States relative to the city of Dantzick, and that he has received orders in caſe of their non agreement thereto to return home immediately.

We hear from the Hague, that the differences between the States and the province of Zealand are now entirely ſettled.

We hear that the repeated inſults given by the Spaniards to the Engliſh, will be one of the firſt things debated in a great aſſembly.

It is ſaid that meſſages were laſt night ſent to moſt of the foreign Miniſters to attend his Majeſty at St. James's this day.

Yeſterday an expreſs was received at St. James's from his Majeſty's Conſul at Algiers, and it is reported that he was going to embark on board a man of war with his family for Gibraltar, when the expreſs came away.

Some material removes at the Admiralty-board are, we are aſſured, now in agitation.

Extract of a letter from Madrid, dated October 6.

"Accounts, and very alarming ones, are conſtantly arriving here of the riſing of the native Indians on the Spaniards, which ſo frequently occurs, that if the court of Old Spain do not ſend over a conſiderable reinforcement to ſecure their dominions in Peru, Chili, La Plata, &c. in South America, they will run in great danger of loſing them. Not only the Indians, but the Negroes and Meſtizos ſeem diſſatisfied to the Spaniſh government. The laſt advices from Lima ſay, that a conſiderable body of Natives had lately roſe in that city, likewiſe in Cuſco, and that much blood was ſpilt before they could be brought to ſubjection."

The friends of Mr. Alderman Wilkes greatly applaud his prudence in not being ſeen in the proceſſion on Lord Mayor's day; for had he attended, his preſence would undoubtedly have ſpirited up the mob, and all the outrages committed would have been attributed to him.

NOVEMBER 13. Yeſterday there was a full board of treaſury, relative to ſome affairs that are to be laid before parliament the enſuing ſeſſion.

The red ribbon, vacant by the death of Lord Carysfort, is ſaid to be intended for Governor Tryon, of New York, for his diligence and aſſiduity in diſperſing the regulators in North Carolina, when he was Governor of that province.

Orders are ſent to Woolwich, for a quantity of ordnance ſtores to be got in readineſs, to be ſhipped for the iſland of Grenada.

Wedneſday night, and Thurſday morning, ſeveral tier of ſhips in the river were blown from their mooring by the violence of the wind, and received great damage.

All apprehenſions of a war in the North till the ſpring are entirely vaniſhed, the cold in Finland ſetting in ſo intenſe from October till May, as to be an effectual bar to all military operations.

Yeſterday a General Court of the India Company was holden at their houſe in Leadenhall ſtreet, by adjournment, to conſider the report of the Court of Directors, relative to the ſending a commiſſion with extraordinary powers to India. Two matters came before the Proprietors in deliberation; the naming a day for chuſing proper Commiſſioners by ballot, and the approval of the Commiſſion prepared by the Company's Council. After ſome debate on which ſhould firſt be taken into conſideration, it was agreed that the legality of the Commiſſion ſhould firſt be determined, and that the appointment of the perſons ſhould follow. After a debate of near four hours, it was agreed without a diviſion, that the Court ſhould be adjourned, for the purpoſe of filling up the blanks in the Commiſſion, till Tueſday next, the ballot to be taken on Thurſday. The buſineſs was conducted with much regularity, and the Proprietors in general ſeemed convinced of the neceſſity of carrying the Commiſſion into immediate execution, as the moſt effectual, indeed the ſole means of remedying the evils crept into the adminiſtration of their ſettlements abroad, and of removing the difficulties under which the Company labours at home.

NOVEMBER 14. Yeſterday no leſs than four meſſengers were ſent off from St. James's with diſpatches to different Courts on the Continent.

On Monday laſt the Lord Mayor ſaid to Mr. Sheriff Lewes, "I ſee, Sir, you are called upon by Mr. Wilkes to give an account of converſations with me; I believe this is the firſt time that I ever had the honour to ſpeak to you." To which Mr. Lewes replied, "I acknowledge what your Lordſhip ſays to be true: I do not remember that we ever had an opportunity of converſing together."

Mr. Sawbridge, who in the handſomeſt and moſt manly manner came to town laſt Monday to attend his friend the Lord Mayor, addreſſed Mr. Lewes in the barge to the following effect: "Sir, I have ſeen a letter in the papers ſigned by Mr. Wilkes, which calls upon you to give an account of your private as well as public tranſactions or converſations with me. So little has paſſed between you and me, having no acquaintance with each other, that I believe I can repeat literally all that paſſed between us. Now, Sir, I think it proper to inform you, that, though Dr. Wilſon's age and profeſſion protect him for the falſhoods concerning me, to which he has ſet his name in an advertiſement from the London tavern, if any other man publiſhes falſhoods concerning me with his name, I ſhall call him to a ſevere account." To which Mr. Lewes replied, "Sir, I am incapable of ſigning a falſhood to pleaſe Mr. Wilkes, or any man; but whatever I may at any time ſign, I ſhall do it without conſidering what account you or any other perſon may call me to for it."

By advices from Vienna we learn, that the Imperial troops in Poland are ordered to go immediately into winter quarters.

They write from Berlin, that the King has lately iſſued an ordinance, by which he offers conſiderable emoluments to any ſhipwright that will enter into his ſervice.

Some letters from Warſaw mention, that the principal inhabitants are removing with all their effects, with the utmoſt precipitation, into Holland.

They write from Leghorn, that two frigates have been taken and brought into that port by Ruſſian men of war from the Levant, bound to Conſtantinople, with ſtores for the uſe of the Grand Seignior.

We hear, that matters of very great importance will be agitated in the approaching ſeſſions of parliament.

It is currently reported, and received as a truth, that a diſtinguiſhed Perſonage from Poland will be in this capital ſoon in the enſuing ſpring.

This morning the wheels were removed from the Lottery office at Whitehall to Guildhall, to be ready againſt the enſuing drawing of the Lottery, which begins on Monday next.

Yeſterday the Counteſs of Huntingdon ſet in her chariot on Tower-hill, where a great number of people were aſſembled, to hear the Rev. Mr. Piercy preach his farewell ſermon, he being to ſet out on Monday next for Georgia, with ſeven young ſtudents educated by the bounty of the above lady.

Mr. Wilkes's letter to the Sheriff Lewes has not anſwered the purpoſe intended. Mr. Wilkes had an anſwer to it ready written; but Mr. Lewes, when it came to the point, refuſed to ſign it, to the great mortification of Mr. Wilkes, who expects his tools to go through thick and thin at the word of command.

WHITEHALL, November 6. The King has been pleaſed to appoint the Hon. Edward Hay, Captain General and Governor in Chief of his Majeſty's Iſland of Barbados, in America, in the room of William Spry, Eſq; deceaſed.

The King has alſo been pleaſed to appoint Daniel Horſmanden, Eſq; Chief Juſtice of his Majeſty's province of New-York, in America.

DUBLIN, November 3. We hear that his Majeſty's letters are come over for augmenting ſome ſalaries, for the change of ſeveral offices, and for ſome penſions.

Yeſterday his Majeſty's yacht the Dorſet ſailed with the Hon. Miſs Townſhend, her two brothers, and ſome of his Excellency's houſhold to Holyhead; where his Excellency Earl Harcourt is expected to-morrow, or Thurſday, and in Dublin on Friday.

Warsaw, October 12. By the late partition of Poland, the King of Prussia will be possessed of a country of 900 square leagues; Austria of one of 2700; and Russia of one of 3440, so that the whole dismemberment amounts to 7040 square leagues. The most valuable are those seized by the Prussians and Austrians; that of the Russians though near as much as the other two, is less valuable.

October 14. The Russians have delivered Lukawski, one of the King's assassins, to the tribunal of the Marshal of the Crown.

Accounts have been received here of a fresh suspension of arms for 40 days between the Russians and Turks, and of the renewal of the negociation for peace.

Hamburgh, October 23. The marriage of the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel with the Princess of Brandebourg Schwedt is now entirely settled, that Princess is to have a dowry of a million of crowns. Count Feodor Orlow died lately in the Archipelago.

Aarhus, October 9. The celebrated Christian Jacobsen Drackenburg, of whom mention has been so frequently made in the public prints on account of his great age, died here this day at seven in the morning, aged 146, having been born November 11, 1626.

Paris, October 19. The frequent fires which have happened in different countries, has awakened the attention of this, to find out means to prevent this calamity, and till now no other method has been thought possible to prevent it, except the precaution of the police and administration; but Glaser, a physician of Hennaberg, a learned German, has invented a varnish which will not take fire; to prove the virtue of which, three houses were built of wood in a field; two of them were covered with this varnish, the third not; and being all set fire to, those varnished were preserved, while the unvarnished one was burnt down.

Hague, October 27. The news of the renewal of the negociation between the Russians and Turks is confirmed here from Berlin and Warsaw.

Petersburgh, October 12. The Grand Vizir leaves to Field Marshal Romanzow the liberty of choosing the place for holding the new congress, either at Bucharest or elsewhere; and likewise the option of negociating either by plenipotentiaries or commissaries: in the latter case, he desires him to come in person to Bucharest, because he, (the Grand Vizir) will again draw near to the Danube, to accelerate the negociations.

October 13. The Empress has granted to Count Gregory Orlow, who assisted at the congress at Fockzany in quality of her minister plenipotentiary, a leave of absence for a year for the recovery of his health; and left it to his option either to remain on his estate, or to go to some of the baths in foreign countries. That Lord is to keep all his employments, and her Imperial Majesty, to reward his services, has granted him 150,000 rubles, and given him 10,000 peasants. His brothers have also received signal marks of our august Sovereign's munificence; Count Alexis, among the rest, has been gratified with an extent of land containing 6000 peasants.

Stockholm, October 16. 'Tis reported, that in less than six months time our army will consist of 60,000 men.

STOCKHOLM, October 20. His Swedish Majesty has been pleased to appoint Senator Count Horn to the post of Grand Master of the Horse, or as it was anciently called, the Kingdom's Master of the Horse: This post, as well as that of Grand Marshal of the Kingdom, which is given to Count Lieven, has been revived by the present King, after being vacant for many years.

COPENHAGEN, October 24. The Castle of Cronenburg is putting in a state of defence. The commission charged to examine the new military plan of Lieutenant General Baur, has rejected it.

WARSAW, October 21. The King has given an answer to the declaration delivered by the Ministers from Vienna, Petersburgh, and Berlin, on the part of their respective Sovereigns, whereby his Majesty alledges, that as the limits of Poland have been settled and acknowledged by various treaties, he cannot but conclude that those three Powers have no pretensions to any of the territories of the Republic; he likewise claims the assistance of the Mediators and Guarantees of the treaty of Oliva; and protests strongly against every proceeding contrary to the treaties and conventions therein recited.

FRONTIERS OF POLAND, October 22. According to the last advices from Warsaw, the Nobility of Great Poland have appointed Prince Anthony Sulkowski their Chief, and have entered into the following engagements: 1st, To oppose all the enterprizes of foreigners against them: 2dly, To regulate their respective interests, and what each district shall furnish: Thirdly, To pay nothing to the Royal Treasury till after holding of the Diet: And 4thly, To notify these resolutions to the King, and to all foreign Courts.

PARIS, October 30. The vineyards this year all promised abundance, but the produce has exceeded the utmost expectations of the proprietors, insomuch that most of them have wanted casks; so that quantities of grapes will be left on the vines in the same manner as happened in the year 1720.

The information ordered by the Parliament against Authors, Printers, and Publishers of papers or pamphlets, any ways relating to Government, continues in force.

AMSTERDAM, November 2. The society established here in favour of persons who shall be drowned, are going to publish the fourth part of their memoirs. In this part will be found an account of 37 fresh cases of persons who were drowned being brought to life, and for which the society have paid the promised rewards.

PARIS, October 30. Last Tuesday in the night the Commissaries of the Parliament, attended by the Attorney General's Substitute, the Greffier, and several other Officers, went in coaches to Mr. Le Sage, Printer and Bookseller in Rue St. Martin, and made a strict search all over his house and warehouses; and though they found no books or copies obnoxious to Government, they carried the Bookseller to the Conciergerie. He had been before confined a long while in the Bastile, for printing and publishing the protest of the Princes of the Blood. The report of the Prince of Conti's secretary being summoned before the Parliament, and of his being gone off to avoid the effects of their resentment, is not true, that Gentleman having been constantly attending his Master at L'Isle Adam.

A malignant fever has prevailed for some time past in the neighbourhood of Fontainbleau, which will probably hasten the departure of the King and the Royal Family from that place.

BOSTON, DECEMBER 7.

In consequence of the letter of correspondence from this town, we hear that the inhabitants of Charles-Town are to have a meeting this day, to take into consideration the present dangerous situation of our public affairs.

The meeting of the town of Marblehead is appointed on Tuesday next, to take into consideration, the alarming condition of the good people of this province under the repeated infractions of their civil constitution, more especially, in the articles of taxation without their consent, and disposing of the monies thus raised to render the principal officers of this government, absolute dependants on the crown of Great-Britain.

DECEMBER 10. The names of the convicts taken in Albany County, are Joseph Bill, John Williamson, John Wall Lovely, William Harbut, Festus Drake, Silas Robinson, John Stannard, Simon Cleveland, and Humphry Downing.

About the time Capt. Skinner sailed from Plymouth, a number of transports sailed for Ireland to take on board two or three regiments who were to relieve those in the West Indies.

We hear there is a very remarkable boy, or young giant, now living in the town of Hingham, where he was born in the year 1758: His name is Israel Remmington, and his amazing size, for a person of his age, as well as strange features, has attracted the attention of multitudes: He is about five feet in height, is remarkably strong, and weighs upwards of 200 weight, has five fingers and a thumb on each hand, and six toes on each foot. It is thought, if he should continue to increase in height and size at such an amazing rate as he has within these few years, he will be 16 feet high, and weigh 4 or 500 weight by the time he is 21 years old.

Saturday evening, Lieut. Col. Leslie, of the 64th regiment, arrived in town from the southward.

DECEMBER 14. Last Thursday evening an express came to town from New York, (which left that place the Sunday morning before) with dispatches brought thither by the Cruizer Sloop of War, Capt. Hews, who sailed from England the beginning of September, destined to this port; but meeting with bad weather, &c. was obliged to put away for South Carolina, where she arrived the 10th of November, and has since got to New-York.---In consequence of the above dispatches, the Lizard Frigate, Capt. Inglish, with some of the armed schooners, which lay unrigged in this harbour, received orders from the Admiral on Saturday morning to be immediately fitted for the sea, and accordingly before night were equipped ready for sailing, with a design, (as we are told) to repair to Lord Hillsborough's loyal colony of Rhode-Island.---The same morning an express set off from hence for New-York, with like orders for the Arethusa to sail for the same place, and letters to General Gage, and Governour Tryon.---Another express was sent to Captain Keeler, Commander of the Mercury Frigate at Newport: But the consequences of this unexpected naval manœuvre we must leave for time to discover; though should any thing of importance transpire, further than that his Majesty's ships lay this winter in the harbour of Newport, with the same security from storms and tempests, that they have hitherto done in that of Boston, we shall not fail of informing our readers thereof.—

It is also further said, that two regiments are to be sent to Rhode-Island from New York; and that a motion was intended to be made at the next session of parliament to have the charter of that colony vacated.

SAVANNAH (in Georgia) DECEMBER 16.

A writ is issued for electing a Member to represent the parish of St. Thomas in General Assembly, in the room of John Baker, sen. Esq; who has taken his seat for the parish of St. Philip.

The ship Fisher and Friendship, Captain Forrester, is arrived at Cockspur from Grenada, with new Negroes, rum, and sugar.

Yesterday Aaron Tilley for horse-stealing, and Joseph Arnor, otherwise Orney, for stealing goods the property of Messr. Jackson and M'Lean, out of an out-house at Augusta, were sentenced to be hanged; and John Powell, convicted of petit larceny, was ordered to be once publicly whipt, to suffer one month's imprisonment, and at the expiration of that time to find security for his good behaviour. The two first are ordered for execution on Friday the 8th of January next.

MARRIED.] Mr. Matthew Roche, jun. to Miss Nancy Tubear, daughter of Mr. David Tubear.

DIED.] Mrs. Bourquin, wife of John Bourquin, Esq; of South-Carolina.

ANECDOTE.

WHEN Vespasian commanded a Senator to give his Voice against the Interest of his Country, and threatened him with immediate Death if he spoke on the other Side; the Roman, conscious that the Attempt to serve the People was in his Power, though the Event was ever so uncertain, answered with a Smile, "Did I ever tell you I was immortal? My Virtue is in my own Disposal; my Life in yours: Do you what you will, I will do what I ought; and if I fall in the Service of my Country, I shall have more Triumph in my Death than you in all your Laurels."

A FRESH PARCEL of Dr. KEYSER's GENUINE PILLS,

With FULL DIRECTIONS for their Use in all CASES. Where may be seen, A NARRATIVE of the Effects of Dr. KEYSER's MEDICINE, with an Account of its ANALYSIS, by the Members of the Royal Academy of Science.

Dr. HILL's genuine TINCTURE of VALERIAN. This pleasant Cordial and enlivening Medicine, is good against all Nervous Disorders, Fits, Head-Achs, Weakness, Heaviness, and Lowness of Spirits; Dimness of the Sight, Vapours and Melancholy, all Kinds of Convulsions, and Hysteric Complaints, Epilepsies, as also against the Sickness of the Stomach, and Flatulencies, Obstructions, and the Convulsive Asthma, &c. The proper Use in all the above Cases, may be seen in the Directions given with each Bottle.

ESSENCE of BALM of GILEAD, a grand Restorative of decayed Nature, good in all Seminal Weaknesses, Hypochondriacal and Nervous Disorders, with the Variety of Symptoms which indicate a weak and infirm Constitution.

Its cordial and balmy Quality, renders it also an agreeable palatable Liquor, and prodigiously refreshing in the sultry Heat of Summer; preventing those Sinkings which over-power the Spirits in hot Weather. The proper Use of this noble Medicine may be seen in the Directions.

Dr. BOERHAAVE's GRAND BALSAM of HEALTH. An admirable Remedy for the Dry Belly-Ach, Cholic, Griping in the Bowels, Pain in the Stomach; it cleanses the Stomach, and procures an Appetite.

Dr. RYAN's Incomparable WORM-DESTROYING SUGAR PLUMBS.

Where also may be had,

JOYCE's GREAT AMERICAN BALSAM, extracted from the best Medicinal Herbs, &c. for the Cure of the following Disorders, incident to human Nature; proved from Experience in New-York, Long-Island, and elsewhere, to equal, and rather exceed any Balsam, Essence, or Elixir, &c. exported from Europe here, for the several Disorders hereafter mentioned.

For common green or fresh Wounds, it heals at once or twice dressing, by closing the Lips of the Wound, and laying on the Wound a Pledgit of Lint dipt in the Balsam. In Nervous Wounds, where the Blood Vessels are divided, &c. it stops the Blood immediately, and heals by a few Applications. For the Cure of the most inveterate Ulcers, only wash them and keep them clean, using first if there be any proud Flesh, a common Caustick, to take the Excrescence away, then apply the Balsam on Lint. If the Ulcers should happen to be fistulous, inject by a Syringe, and after close the Orifice with a Pledgit dipt in the Balsam, and so repeat. There are Witnesses undeniable of the Balsam alone curing a Fistula in Ano, now present in New-York: The Author of this Balsam, (under God) will engage to cure a Fistula in Ano, even if the Rectum is perforated, without Incision, except as much by a Lancet to make Way for Injection, and no more. For the Cure of Colds, attended with violent Coughing, Pains in the Breast, Inflammation in the Throat and Glands, Difficulty of Breathing, being obstructed by tough viscid Phlegm; by taking a Tea Spoonful of the Balsam, mixed with Sugar or Honey, it quickly cures, taken twice a Day, Morning fasting, and at Night going to Bed. It is exceeding good in all Manner of Swellings; for violent Falls or inward Bruises, nothing is better, for it scatters coadgulated Blood, and stops Blood that might be occasioned by the inward Parts being hurt, or a Rexis of Vessels inwardly. In the Cure of Pleurisy, after Bleeding (where it is required) give a Tea Spoonful three Times a Day, in Sugar, and between Times now and then 20 or 30 Drops of spirituous Nitri dulcis, that is the sweet Spirits of Nitre.---It cures Consumptions in them that are not too far gone, except they pass the Age of Fifty, by taking of it inwardly three Times a Day, a full Tea Spoonful mixt with Sugar or Honey, each Dose. It strengthens the Nerves, and is good in all Nervous Disorders, by taking of it inwardly, and anointing the Parts outwardly, keeping warm.
